

The inventory interface provides a comprehensive view of your product list and details. It allows you to register new products, add supplies, and update existing product information. Additionally, a search function is available to quickly locate specific products and their details, facilitating efficient inventory management.

