The Point of Sale (POS) interface facilitates transactions and includes a void function for managing transactions effectively. It also features a dashboard providing access to all previous interfaces, ensuring seamless navigation and comprehensive management of sales and inventory operations.

List of products, prices, and quantity

Quantity and barcode number

Total price of transaction

Process Transaction and open purchase window

Remove products in the list

Navigation buttons/ Dashboard

Input transaction details

Complete the Transaction and process change

Complete the transaction